

Theorizing the Social World from Africa: A day with Jean Comaroff and John Comaroff

9h00 - Welcoming Address and Introduction - Mathieu Hilgers (ULB)

9h15 - Theorizing the Social World from Africa - Jean Comaroff and John Comaroff
(Harvard University)

10h00 - Discussion

Session I - Of Revelation and Revolution

10h45 - Belatedness: Historical and Ethnographic Writings on Violence

Mariane Ferme (UCBerkeley)

11h00 - The Social Space of Conversion - Joël Noret (ULB)

11h15 - Work, Welfare and Racism in Katanga, D. R. Congo. Reflections on the Consciousness of Paternalism - Benjamin Rubbers (ULg/ULB)

11h30 - Discussion

Session II - Law and Disorder in the Postcolony

13h30 - Breaking the Law and Producing Order - Laurent Fourchard (FNSP/LAM)

13h45 - The Legal Imposition of Disorder in Post-Colonial Congo/Katanga - Miles Larmer
(University of Oxford)

14h00 - Discussion

Session III - Ethnicity, Inc.

14h30 - Indigenous Inc.: Ethnic branding and the politics of becoming indigenous in contemporary Kenya - Gabrielle Lynch (Warwick University)

14h45 - Ethnicity and Comparison - Andrea Rea (ULB)

15h00 - Discussion

Session IV - Theory from the South

16h00 - Multiplicity and Becoming: A view from an African Success Story - Marco Di Nunzio
(Wiener Anspach/ULB)

16h15 - What Does "Theorizing the South" Mean? - Mathieu Hilgers (ULB)

16h30 - Discussion

17h00 - Conclusion - Mariane Ferme (UCBerkeley)